Comparing Revolutionary Plans

Cite as many specific examples from the texts as possible to strengthen your analysis of these three key revolutionary plans. What similarities and differences do you see? What kinds of people would be most attracted to the vision outlined by each of these revolutionaries?

In the 1910 “Plan of San Luis Potosi” (#3), what grievances does Madero outline? What is his vision for Mexico?

In the 1911 “Plan of Ayala” (#4), what grievances does Zapata outline? What is his vision for Mexico?

In the 1913 “Dreams of a Future Mexico” (#5), what grievances does Villa outline? What is his vision for Mexico?

What conflicts or tensions do you see in these revolutionary programs?
