Terms: Define and explain the historical significance of the following terms Note: look at the Wikipedia entries to compliment the scant info in these sources.

- World Social Forum
- Noam Chomsky
- Luis Posada Carriles

Historical Analysis World Social Forum Speech (2005)

1. In this 2005 speech how does Chávez describe his vision for revolution?

2. With whom does Chávez compare himself? Why do you think he use these examples in particular?

3. Who is his audience, and how does that shape his rhetoric?

Historical Analysis: Address to the UN (2006)

1. In this 2006 speech how does Chávez describe his vision for revolution?

2. Who is his audience, and how does that shape his rhetoric?

3. What examples does Chávez use to criticize the United States? What are his goals with this theatrical public critique?

4. What reforms does Chávez suggest to re-establish the United Nations? What are his goals with this proposal?

5. How do these relate to the larger goals for his Bolivarian Revolution?